SUBJECT: Nominating Committee Report and Election of Officers

RECOMMENDATION:

Elect Chair and Vice-Chair

SUMMARY:

At your October 2nd meeting, Chair Golich appointed a Nominating Committee comprised of Bill Michalski, Phil Pryde, Pat Whitt and Jeff Barnouw, with Bill to serve as Chair. The Nominating Committee's assignment was to recommend a Chair and Vice-Chair willing to serve in those capacities for 2014 and 2015.

The Nominating Committee's proposed slate for Chair and Vice-Chair is to re-elect our current officers: Tom Golich, Chair and Jacqueline Winterer, Vice-Chair.

At today's meeting, nominations will be accepted from the floor prior to voting on the Nominating Committee's proposed slate. Nominees must be willing to serve. If there are nominees from the floor, a secret ballot election will be held.

CAC election of the Chair and Vice-Chair must be confirmed by the JPA Board at their next meeting, which will be February 21st.

TO: CAC
FROM: Staff
SUBJECT: Proposed Changes to Donation Policy

RECOMMENDATION:

Discuss and make recommendation to JPA Board

SUMMARY:

Vice-Chair Winterer has been concerned about the SDRP naming policies and has consequently drafted the attached memos for the CAC's consideration.

As she explains, the 2009 SDRP-JPA Donation Acceptance and Recognition Policy (Donation Policy) addresses the issue of naming River Park features in the context of donations. It does not provide guidelines for the naming of new features and facilities outside of that context. Some geographic features need a name because they need to be referred to although nobody gave any money for them. The Dust Devil Nature Trail is an example.

In order to remedy this situation and to standardize the naming policies, Jacqueline submitted the attached memo and recommendations. She is asking the CAC to consider amending the 2009 SDRP-JPA Donation Acceptance and Recognition Policy as allowed in section IV of that policy. Such an amendment will require a JPA Board vote and she is suggesting that the CAC take on the task of considering the changes proposed here.

From: Jacqueline Winterer
To: CAC
Subject: Amending Section III of Donation Acceptance and Recognition Policy.
Date: January 16 2014

Proposed amendments to the SDRP Donation Policy of 06/19/09.

New title for the Policy:
SDRP JPA Donation Policy and Naming Guidelines

New title for Section III:
Naming Rights and Guidelines.

In blue, guidelines are from the existing Donation Policy, section III, in black (underlined) proposed new guidelines adapted from US Board of Geographic Names recommendations.

1. New names must be approved by the JPA Board with recommendation from the CAC. Any member of the public may request that the CAC consider its recommendation of acceptance or denial before the item is considered by the JPA Board for a final decision (Donation Policy section III , I.)

(In the past this policy has not always been implemented.)

2. Names should be short and simple

3. The principal concern in naming a feature is to provide effective, conveniently usable, and appropriate reference. All features do not necessarily need a name.

(Example: Lagoon nesting sites)

4. Historical or geographic names for Park features are preferred, with the name of donors or memorial names secondary.

5. Naming facilities, including trail, after individuals can be given consideration and should be limited to

- recognition for outstanding services or
- exceptionally generous financial contributions from a donor.

• surnames are preferable to full names

• people who are deceased

(Giving names of living people has its dangers: consider what happened to Rep. Cunningham and San Diego Mayor Filner. I don't know if anything was ever named after them, but giving the name of people who have died is better).

6. Names should be made of two parts.

A SPECIFIC NAME. and a GENERIC NAME.

This will be best understood best in giving examples:

SPECIFIC NAME	GENERIC NAME
Coast to Crest	Trail
Crest	Canyon
Dust Devil	Nature Trail
Peter Douglas	Wetland
Bernardo	Mountain
Sikes Adobe	Historic Farmstead
Mule Hill	Trail
Clevenger	Canyon etc...

Essentially a minimum of 2 words are needed to name a feature.
Two words names are sufficient and even preferred. While more words have been used, the longer the name the more difficult it is for people to remember them.

(The Boardwalk is some time referred to without its specific name: Lagoon Boardwalk).

7. or E: Physical display of the Naming Rights
(unchanged from original section III).

8. or F: Duration of naming rights. (unchanged)

9. or G: Informed consent. (unchanged)

10. or H: Monetary valuation of naming rights. (unchanged).

11. In the event of a conflict, the persons or agencies most directly involved should resolve the matter. When a single name has been applied to two different sites, the feature named first generally should retain the name. (Example: there are apparently 2 Black Mountains in San Diego County).

REVISING THE SDRP NAMING POLICIES:
WHY ADOPT SHORT NAMES FOR PARK FEATURES?

The San Dieguito River Park is very large. Its area is 50,000 acres or 78 sq. mi..
Two comparisons are made below to give a sense of the park size.

1. The LIST OF UNITED NATIONS COUNTRIES AND TERRITORIES BY AREA on Wikipedia reveals that there are 249 Countries and Territories. The River Park is larger than 23 of those countries and territories. You are very familiar with 2 of these : Monaco and the Vatican.

2. The area of the Park is as large as the cumulative area of the following five SD County cities: Poway, Encinitas, El Cajon, Solana Beach and Del Mar *.

Our Park is mostly unpopulated, has few street crossings (the freeways), no street numbers and few structures. One could say that it does have a very long single street: the Coast to Crest Trail.

While some of us are familiar with the whole Park, others are only familiar with some trail segments.

So the question is, how does one locate oneself in the Park?

1. Longitude and latitude: this is not a familiar way for people to locate themselves.

2. Mile markers are locators, not unlike street numbers or street crossings.

The FSDRV have worked with the JPA and the Conservancy to identify mileage along the trail with mile markers. Only a few are installed so far, but I am told that the miles are identified on the trail maps prepared by the Conservancy.

Here is an example of how this is helpful: when I know that Lake Hodges Dam is at mile 13.5 and I-15 at mile 20.5, I know that the walk along Lake Hodges shore will be about 7 miles, how far it is from both the ocean and I-15.

3. Geographic and other features, are also good locators, not unlike significant buildings in a city: the Library, the Post Office, a major store etc...

While many old names are simple as in Clevenger Canyon, Pamo Valley, Mule Hill trail, Crest Canyon and easy to remember, there have been occasions recently when very long names have been attributed to features that makes it difficult to remember.

An example: the David Ktreitzer Lake Hodges Bicycle/Pedestrian Bridge: 7 words.

So what is proposed today is to revise the donations policy, to provide guidelines and the rationale for adopting short names for park features. We need them to help locate ourselves in the Park.

- B. Recognition for certain donations such as gardens or staging areas (items C.f, C.g or C.i above) may take the form of a small freestanding sign giving the name of the donor, honoree if any, and the date of the donation.

- C. For recognition of multiple donations associated with large facilities it will be appropriate to have a plaque or similar display listing all donors, which shall be located in a conspicuous but not distracting location. Size, scale, and material of the sign or other method of display shall be consistent with the number of donors and the structure.
- D. The Executive Director of the San Dieguito River Park has the authority to accept the donations described in Section I.C. above, pursuant to the terms of this Policy. - E. The donated items described in Section I.C. above will be located in appropriate locations in the Park as determined by the Executive Director or his designee. It is important that the placement of items and/or recognition for donated items minimize impacts to native habitat and the wildlife that uses it, preserve and respect views, and preserve and respect the pristine nature of undeveloped areas.
- F. No religious or political statements are allowed on any signage.
- G. Recognition for larger gifts may take the form of Naming Rights consistent with Section III.

III. Naming Rights

Naming rights may be granted by the JPA in recognition of any significant contribution to the Park that it wishes to honor. These contributions can be financial in nature or for meritorious service not associated with a donation and is at the discretion of the JPA Board in agreement with the party or their representatives. Naming rights will be granted at the sole discretion of the JPA Board in recognition of persons or entities it wishes to honor.

- A. The JPA will not name a geographic feature of the Park, such as a mountain, lagoon or creek, after an individual or other entity.
- B. Historical or geographical names for Park facilities are preferred, with the name of the donor or memorial name secondary to the historical or geographical name.
- C. Naming Park facilities, including trails, after individuals (donors, honorariums and memorials) should be given careful consideration by the JPA Board and staff.
- D. One of the following two criteria must be fulfilled in order for the granting of Naming Rights to be considered:
 - a. Recognition of outstanding service to the Park;
 - b. Recognition of an exceptionally generous financial contribution from a donor (be it by way of donation, bequest, sponsorship, etc.)
- E. Physical Display of Naming Rights
 - a. The physical display of the Naming Rights shall be decided or negotiated by the JPA Board on a case by case basis, with consideration given to appropriateness of the size, style and refinement of the display in proportion to the facility and its setting.
- F. Duration of Naming Rights. The duration of the recognition – whether in perpetuity or for a designated period – will be determined by the JPA Board in consultation with the donor/contributor or a trustee at the time of the donation/contribution. Notwithstanding this clause, any responsibility of the JPA toward the donor regarding the naming rights is subject to Section I.I.c. and shall be terminated if the named object no longer exists.

- G. Informed Consent. The JPA shall not grant a Naming Right without the informed consent of the named party or the named party's legal representative.
- H. Monetary Valuation of Naming Rights. Monetary valuations may be assigned to Naming Rights possibilities on a case by case basis to aid with making decisions about granting Naming Rights.
- I. Acceptance of a donation in association with naming rights must be approved by the JPA Board, with recommendation from the CAC. Any member of the public may request that the CAC reconsider its recommendation of acceptance or denial before the item is considered by the JPA Board for a final decision.

IV. This Policy may be amended by majority vote of the JPA Board.

Adopted by the JPA Board 6/19/09

COUNTY TO SELL UNINCORPORATED PARK AREA NAMING RIGHTS

Move made to pay for maintenance

MARK WALKER • U-T

SAN DIEGO

Park trails, playgrounds and other amenities in the unincorporated area are going up for sale.

At least their naming rights are after the San Diego County Board of Supervisors on Wednesday approved a plan to sell naming rights for park facilities to groups, businesses and individuals for up to 20 years in a move that could generate $6 million or more.

County supervisors voted

4-1 to approve the plan to sell naming rights for five, 10, 15 or 20 years as a way to generate money for public open areas.

The only caveat to secure the rights after writing the check is that nothing promoting a product, alcohol, gambling or a political or religious viewpoint is allowed.

Supervisor Bill Horn strenuously objected to the pitch from county parks department, saying he doesn't think the county should be in the business of selling any piece of its property holdings.

"The San Diego County name is good enough,"

Horn said. "It is not for sale. We have enough money and a triple-A bond rating so that if you really need something done you can come ask for it."

He cited a rubberized ball field the county recently installed at one county park, saying selling naming rights to that detracts from the fact that county taxpayers are the ones that footed the bill.

The plan is the result of a more than yearlong study by county parks officials to come up with ways to generate revenues for maintenance and new park development. They conducted 4514 meetings in recent months with park groups around the county, finding general support for the move.

"We're trying to find other ways we can pick up money, and we think this is a very good idea," Paul Davis, a parks advisory panel member told the supervisors.

The county has dozens of park trails, fields, community centers and the like that could be eligible for the naming rights.

Park names themselves are not for sale, nor are any existing, already-named trails or facilities.

The cash generated from the sales will go either to the specific park where a name is purchased if that's what the buyer wants, or into a general fund benefiting all parks.

Supervisor Dave Roberts said he supports the move because of the money it can generate, but expressed concern that tribal-owned casinos that help sponsor many community programs were being excluded. However, tribes using just their names would be allowed to sponsor park facilities.

Supervisor Dianne Jacob said the idea is worth trying for the next year and then seeing what the result has been.

The marketing program will soon appear on the parks department website, where a catalog of naming opportunities and the price tag can be examined. Some of those costs could run as high as $200,000 for substantially long trails named for 20 years.

Specific language to ensure that names do not promote products, substances and are viewpoint neutral is being developed by county attorneys.

Five-year naming rights for $15,000 less are subject to approval by the parks director. Longer-term naming leases and anything costing more than $15,000 requires approval of supervisors.

Dear Ms. Carter,

This will serve to apprise you that the Lomas Serenas Property Owners Board of Directors has voted to request reinstatement of the Lomas Serenas Representative on the River Park's Citizens Advisory Committee. Terry Badger, who has represented our community for many years is on the Committee already as a Central Property Owner, and is not eligible to take the Lomas Serenas slot. However, we have two volunteers, Karen Black, current Board of Directors President, and Dorothy McLin, resident, who have expressed interest in the representative/alternate positions. These positions will be approved by the Board at the February meeting.

This note is to ask you to start the machinery rolling to reinstitute the Lomas Serenas position on the CAC. Thank you for your help in this regard.

Very truly yours,
