   Principal Planner Shawna Anderson presented the Board with four documents; Resolution Certifying the Final EIR, Findings of Fact, Statement of Overriding Considerations, and the Mitigation Monitoring and Reporting Program Report. The project was presented in detail at the October 19, 2018 meeting.

   Fourteen comment letters were received. The Final EIR includes the responses to the letters. Ms. Anderson reported that responses to the letters have been sent to the public agencies. A second letter was received from the California Coastal Commission praising the collaboration with SCE and SANDAG with the comment that any impacts will have to be mitigated through the Coastal Development Permit process. JPA staff will work with CCC staff during the process. Ms. Anderson reported that agreements between all stakeholders (SCE, SANDAG, and City of San Diego) will be presented to this Board in the future. SANDAG is financially responsible for the project. SUBJECT: Contract Options for Coast Maintenance Facility

BACKGROUND:

This report follows up on discussions from the three prior board meetings in 2018 regarding the Coast Maintenance Facility project.

The Coast Maintenance Facility (Ranger Station) has been in the planning and permitting phase for over four years. Several presentations to the Board have shown that the original design and the associated bids received for that design all significantly exceeded the JPA’s reasonable expectations on budget. Two rounds of bids and attempts to phase the building all resulted in excessive bid results with figures ranging from over $1M for phase I only (garage) to over $2M for the entire project.

In September, 2018, the Board approved staff’s recommendation to pursue a new design working with a Design/Build contractor (“Baker Design Build”) that would fall within a construction budget of $850,000. The contract with Baker Design Build had two tasks: 1) redesign the project, and 2) provide a price to construct the project. The contract does not obligate the JPA to hire Baker Design Build, but it provides that option. The new design is complete, and staff recently received its long-awaited building permit from the City of San Diego. Staff also projected that the new design and final permitting would cost approximately $50,000 and with permits now in hand, staff has stayed under that projected amount. Baker Design Build provided staff with a proposal for the design (now completed) and construction that is within $850,000 budget (construction phase).

The Board also approved a construction loan at its November, 2018 meeting which has since been issued. The loan has required milestones for progress on the project and drawdowns of the funds. The JPA now has all funds on hand to start construction if it can proceed with a contract for the budgeted amount of $850,000.

At this point, the Board has two options:

1. Direct staff to negotiate a contract with Baker Design Build to complete the project as proposed based upon a finding that there would be no competitive advantage to a third bid process pursuant to Procurement Policy Section 11.2, or
2. Direct Staff to proceed with a third competitive bid process.

Set forth below is a brief overview of each option.
FINDING OF NO COMPETITIVE ADVANTAGE:

Section 11.2 of the JPA’s Procurement Policy provides the following exception to the public bidding requirement:

Competitive bidding can be waived if the Executive Director, for work within his or her authority, or Board of Directors, for all other work, make written findings that bidding would not be in the public interest and that no competitive advantage would be gained by soliciting bids.

This exception has been upheld by several California courts as explained in Graydon v. Pasadena Redevelopment Agency (1980) 104 Cal.App.3rd 631, 636.

[T]here are certain well recognized exceptions to said rule [the bidding requirement]. One exception is where the nature of the subject of the contract is such that competitive proposals would be unavailing or would not produce an advantage, and the advertisement for competitive bids would thus be undesirable, impractical or impossible. . . . . .

The principle has been held applicable in California decisions in a variety of situations involving both the purchase of series and products and the construction of public improvements and building where it has appeared that competitive bidding would be incongruous or would not result in any advantage to the public entity in efforts to contract for the greatest public benefit.

Staff believes facts to support a finding of no competitive advantage exist in this instance, for among other reasons, the following:

1. The project has been subjected to two competitive bid processes that had minimal response and bids that far exceeded the estimated construction cost and budget for the project.
2. The second bid process divided the project in half, and the prices proposed by responsive bidders for one half of the project were higher than Baker Design Build is proposing for the entire project.
3. The project has been redesigned to be less expensive, but given the prior bid responses, staff believes the prices that would be obtained with a third bid process would still be higher than the price proposed by Baker Design Build.
4. Baker Design Build developed the new project design, and as such, is uniquely qualified to complete the project with minimal risk of misunderstanding, change orders etc.

Staff recommends the Board consider the facts outlined above, along with any others that may be presented during the hearing on this item and make an independent determination of whether facts sufficient to support a finding of no competitive advantage exist in this instance.

PROCEED WITH A THIRD COMPETITIVE BID PROCESS:
The presumptive procedure for public projects such as the ranger station is a competitive bid process. Thus, the Board has full authority to direct that this project undergo a third competitive bid process. It is possible that a new competitive bid process would result in lower, more competitive pricing than anticipated. Staff is prepared to proceed with a third bid process if directed.

RECOMMENDED ACTION:

Consider all information presented and either:

1. Direct Staff to negotiate a final contract with Baker Design Build for construction of the Coast Maintenance Facility project based upon a finding that there would be no competitive advantage to a third bid process; or
2. Direct staff to initiate a third competitive bid process for the Coast Maintenance Facility.

Respectfully submitted,

Kevin McKernan
Executive Director
